AFRICANDER A BIG SURPRISE.

BEATS M'CHESNEY IN THE CUP PRELIMINARY.

Hig Mac. After Bolting on the Turn, Finishes orites Succeed at Brighton Beach.

After a chapter of accidents Africander, at odds of 20 to 1, won the Cup Preliminary, weight for age, one mile and a half, at Brighton yesterday by half a length in 2:34. He was perfectly ridden by Frank O'Neill, and on in the stretch with much of his old courage. But it was the consensus of opinion that McChesney, who was second in favor at 3 to 2, would have carried off the honors had he not run out on the far turn and collided with The Picket, thereby loging a couple of lengths. The thereby losing a couple of lengths Picket, 7 to 5 favorite, was knocked back by the interference, and could not get inside the money. In going to the whip, Hilde-brand, who had the mount on Eugenia Burch, backed down to sevens, lost his reins momen tarily, and the mare faltered perceptibly. Africander was strong at the finish, and outgamed McChesney, who ran a vastly improved race and beat Eugenia Burch a head for the place. The Picket was a length behind, and ten lengths in front of Major Daingerfield, who refused to break at the raising of the gate and was left.

It was one of the most interesting races, in m a spectacular point of view, that have been run this season. At the sendoff The Pick et and Eugenia Burch went off in front, the atter leading by a short margin as the judges' stand was passed for the first time. Redfean, who was being pulled out of the saddle, rated McChesney along in third place, with Africander and Daingerfield trailing. In the run to the backstretch Eugenia Burchled by a head, with The Picket clinging to her by a nead, which should be a seemed that dropped back to last place, and seemed to have no chance. The pace was slow all the way, and nearing the far turn Redfern made his move with "Rig Mac." The Macduff horse quickly bolted, and though we went up to the leaders with a great rush he bore out beyond the middle of the track. Redfern whipped him over the head, however, and he whipped him over the head, however, and he ran in (again just as quickly, bumping The Picke and going to the front. As McChesney led int. The stretch the crowd broke into uprearious cheering, for it looked as if he would just then Africander came up, and, with Pargenia Burch, passed the last sixteenth pole on even terms. Inch by inch Africander got his head in front of McChes-ney, while Eugenia Burch, on the rail, was struggling along in game fashion too, in spite of kildebrand's blunder. It was a smashing fluish, and when Africander passed the wire victorious there was a wild scene, even though the crowd at large had lost heavily on the result.

First Mason. McChesney's half-brother, won the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth in impressive style. He shouldered 126 pounds, giving all the way from three to twenty-nine pounds to his company, and was made a hot favorite at 8 to 5. E. R. Thomas's St. Valen-tine and Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right attracted the rest of the money, closing at a to 2 and 5 to 2 respectively. Gay Boy, 12 to 1. made the running, first disposing of Duke of Kendal and then St. Valentine. Willie Davis held First Mason back meanwhile, but when he decided to let the Westerner down it was all over. as First Mason shot into the lead and won in a gallop by a length and a half in the fast time of 1:45 2-5. Ormonde's Right closed with much power in the stretch and beat Gay Boy half a length

Those who accepted 11 to 20 against Belle Strome in the third event, for two-year-olds at six furlongs, were worried to the heart breaking point before the race was over. Belle Strome set a terrific pace, but, like McChesney, she ran out in the turn, and before Redfern could get her straight Dandelion, second choice, was gaining on her with every stride. Belle Strome was stopping in the last sixteenth, and Redfern had to go to the whip to win by half a length from Dandelion in 1:12, which equalled the best record for the track. Pasadena, 5 to 1, ran third, four lengths back.

Memphis, a 50 to 1 shot, led all the way in he first race, at six juriongs, but was tiring so much near the end that Phantom, 7 to 1, would have beaten him in another jump. As it was, Memphis got the verdict by head, with Phantom five lengths before Sydney Paget's Water Pansy, 7 to 1, who made up a lot of ground in the last quarter and beat Falmouth, a 100 to 1 shot, by a head. The time was 1:14

NEW YORK RIFLEMEN WIN. Beat United States Marine Corps Team for McAlpin Trophy

CREEDMOOR, L. I., Sept. 13.—The New York State Rifle team, on which were many of the foremost riflemen in this country, won the initial competition here to-day for the McAlpin trophy. High winds and lowering clouds made the shooting very difficult and the scores under the adverse circumstances were meritorious. The New York State team won by 48 points from the United States Marine Corps team. The distances were 200, 600 and 1,000 yards, with ten shots per man at each distance. Standing, at the first range, and prone at the other two. First Sergt. George E. Bryant of the Twenty-third Regiment led the winning team of the State with the fine total of 134 points. Sergt. H. Baptist of the Marines led the field with a total of 135 points. The scores: the McAlpin trophy. High winds and lower

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

STEWARDS REFUSE THE ENTRY OF THE CRAZY SPAR.

two-Year-Old Son of Box Throws Two Joekeys and Is Withdrawn-E. R. Thomas Loses $10,000 on St. Valentine-Selling Race Produces Action.

About the craziest horse that has been seen at a local track in some time was the two-year-old Spar, a son of Box-Virginia Keene, who was named as a starter in the third race yesterday. Just as the horses emerged from the paddock gate Spar, who had been kicking up and dashing about in the most unruly fashion, threw down his head and hurled little McDonald to the ground. The boy was severely shaken up and was so completely terrorized that it was impos for him to resume the mount. While Spar stood still, looking over the situation, the midget, Johnny O'Brien, got into the colors and walked out upon the track to climb into the saddle. Spar had been led out before him and was quiet enough until the boy started to put his foot in the stirrup. Then unruly temper of his sire, began to kick by the head were being dragged about like children. Yet O'Brien was fearless and after several attempts managed to jump on the gelding's back. He did not stay there iong, for Spar, following the practice of a bucking bronco, threw O'Brien clean out of the saddle. The boy landed on his shoulder, but scrambled up unhurt, ready to try again. By this time the stewards reached the conclusion that there was no chance to get Spar and also refused to accept his entry in future. The incident caused a long delay, but the action of the stewards was loudly applauded

E. R. Thomas burned up $10,000 yesterday with the ease that one lights a cigarette. The millionaire turfman figured that his colt St. Valentine had a mortgage on the handicap which First Mason won, in spite of the fact that his partner, Alexander Shields, held a contrary opinion. St. Valentine opened at 6 to 1, but Mr. Thomas's commissioners backed him down to 2 to 1 a few moments before the horses were sent away. When St. Valentine came home badly beaten Mr. Thomas was visibly disturbed.

Both Lem Reed and Schoharie were also effective money burners in the first race Jack McGinnis dropped a small bundle on Schoharie, while P. J. Gorman induced a liberal friend to bet $2,000 on Lem Reed for him. Lem Reed carried a large amount of wise money, by the way, including some from the clubhouse, but Hildebrand could not get him out of a jam in time to be near the money. Memphis, the winner of this race, was quoted as high as 60 to 1 in some books, but the odds quickly dropped to 30 to 1, many small bettors playing him at those Drake had a solid bet on First Mason, and so did nearly all the heavy speculators. When this horse, who has much of the action of McChesney, came home on the bit, the crowd believed that his famous half-brother would surely win the Cup Preliminary. Both The Picket and McChesney carried a world of money, the ring winning heavily on the race, as Africander ran practically unbacked by the stable, his odds soaring from 10 to 1 to 25 to 1 in some of the books. Charley Gates, however, was lucky enough to have $100 on Africander at 20 to 1, and he rooted him home in lively style from the clubhouse balcony. Drake and his friends also had a swell wager on Belle Strome, who was hammered down from 4 to 5 to 11 to 20. Major Daingerfield clearly sulked at the barrier, probably because the old fellow has had a trifle too much racing lately. When the gate went up he stuck his toes in the ground and refused to budge until Odom had given him several cracks with the whip. He lost half a dozen lengths by this behavior, and ran one of his bullheaded races thereafter.

The selling race war broke out in earnest after the fifth event. Dick Bernard, owned by E. E. Smathers, who won in a gallop, was entered to be sold for $1,800. Halter Tommy Griffin, acting for Tony Aste, owner of Canteen, the second horse, proceeded to bid the Smathers colt up to $3,100, at which figure Trainer Frank Taylor retained him with the usual $5 advance. This runup netted Aste $650, under the rules, and the "Bootblack King" then turned around and claimed Mrs. L. Curtis's Stolen Moments, who ran third, for $1,850.

Smathers was not at the track to see either McChesney or Dick Bernard run, and it was said that his betting commissioner did not receive orders to back either of them. the public played them both, the books being rather severely hit when Dick Bernard won. The Drake combination did not bet a dollar. it was said, on South Trimble in this race. The St. George horse was prominent part of the way, but stopped to nothing. Frank Farrell's Gay Lothario was backed all over the ring at 8 to 1, but he soon ran into a pocket, from which Travers never extricated him. Frank Tyler, the "Humming Bird," who is operating in the big ring on the back line these days, laid 9 to 5 against McChesney when 8 to 5 was the prevailing price, and soon had a howling, Aghting mob to deal with.

He took all the money in sight on "Big Mac," and kept it, too. Lucy Young was played for a killing in the last race, being reduced from 60 to 1 to 30 to 1 She had a weak jookey on her back, and stopped as if short in work. Fancy Dress, from the Keene stable, who was victorious went begging at the wind-up of the speculation as there was a concerted rush to back Long Days, Miss Modesty, Queen Rose, My Buela and Lucy Young, My Buela, carrying the Paget colors, was shut off in the first quarter.

The well known "vet," Dr. Sheppard, who was kicked in the head by a horse he was treating during the summer meeting at the Beach, made his first appearance at the track vesterday since the accident.

The first shipment of horses to the Coast for the coming winter meeting was made yesterday, when W. Fisher and "Packey" Ryan sent nine racers West in a single car. William Clare, the superintendent of the Brighton track, will take a trip abroad after the present meeting ends to inspect the steeplechase courses in Ireland and France. Frank T. Clarke, the superintendent of the sheepshead Bay track, will make a similar trip this fall. was announced yesterday that the National Stable will sell out at Morris Park next nonth. Included in the lot will be the two year-olds Belle Strome, Invader and Sir Brillar, the stallions Strephon and Northern star and a bunch of yearlings Starter Fitzgerald suspended D. O'Connor for three days for disobedience at the post. Jack Phillips has purchased Leader from W. B. Jennings for $1,500.

Seventeen stakes to be run at the Jamaica meeting will close on Sept. 20. The added money runs up to $2,000 in several instances. The Cup Preliminary was run last year for the first time, E. R. Thomas's Hermis winning in 2:32 1-5, which is the track record. As it was the thirteenth day of the month, superstitious speculators could not help play ing Memphis in the first race as he was No. 13 on the programme. One man who took this hunch got 60 to 1 for his money. The baseball world was represented by John T. Brush, John McGraw and Harry Pulliam, who decided after the races that counting gate receipts was a cinch compare What is the matter with Father Bill Daly?

The Sage of Hartford has not won a race for weeks Redfern rode two winners.

FAVORITES WIN AT READVILLE Caspian Beats Hawthorne and McKinley in 2:06 Trot.

Sept. 13.-While the conditions inder which the second day's racing over the were adverse to fast performances, there was plenty of opportunity for enthusiasm, as eighteen heats were pulled off in the four events, one of which goes over until tomorrow before it will be decided. The raw atmosphere and the slow turf caused the time not to be up to the standard of the It was favorites' day, but in each of the events it was necessary for the talent's choice in the finished races to go extra miles before in the finished races to go extra miles before the money came their way. In the unfinished event the favorite did not begin to show until the third heat, but then he was outbrushed in the straight.

Caspian was the choice in the 2:06 trot, in which McKinley and Hawthorne were his opponents. First Caspian won, then the roan mare Hawthorne, in a very fast finish, won the second mile, while McDonald, who had been substituted by the judges for Jolly behind McKinley, finished third. The third heat saw McKinley home to the wire in time much faster than the two previous heats, but, as he was unsteady the fourth trip, Caspian won over Hawthorne by two lengths.

Mainland was the choice in the 2:21 trot, but could not outbrush Mary Steele in the opening round, while Scott Hudson won the second comparatively easy over Ethelwyn. In the third, Mainland made a misstep in the stretch and Ethelwyn won. The next two heats saw Hudson's charge going level, and victory was his.

FIGHTS IN MANY RINGS. Lively Bouts Out of Town-Feltz Wins Through Courtesy of Referee.

Pugilists were busy out of town on Monday night, three interesting bouts being decided. At Baltimore before the Eutaw A. C., a large crowd witnessed a slashing fifteen round bout between Tommy Feltz of Brooklyn and Tony Bender of Elizabeth. Although Feltz Tony Bender of Edizabeth. Atthough refizeered the verdict, there were many in the crowd who thought that the decision should have been a draw. Feltz had a trifle the better of hostilities in the earlier rounds, but from the tenth to the finish Bender scored the reset register.

better of hostilities in the earlier rounds, but from the tenth to the fluish Bender scored the most points.

Two bantams, who entered the ring at 105 pounds, gave an interesting exhibition for ten rounds at Webster, Mass. The principals were Johnny Fisher of Worcester and Patsy McKenna of Boston, and they met in the Music Hall. McKenna gave Fisher a severe walloping and was declared the winner. McKenna's victory is all the more significant, as he entered the ring against the advice of his physician, who gave him a certificate stating that he had water on the elbow.

There was some hot fighting at the Chester Broadway A. C., Chester, Pa. The weather was warm and the crowd sat under electric fans in their shirt sleeves. The main event was a six round bout between Kid Wilson of Orange, N. J., and Billy Dinkle of Syracuse. Wilson knocked Dinkle out in the fourth round after some hard hitting and knockdowns. Dinkle took the count in the third round, but staggered to his feet and clinched. When the men broke Dinkle landed a hard right on the jaw and Wilson went down. He recovered in time to finish the round. The final round was a hummer, but Wilson was the stronger, and succeeded in putting Dinkle away with a right counter on the jaw.

OAME.

BOSTON, Sept. 13.—New Yorks won a double header from Boston to-day, taking the first game by a score of 3 to 1, and the second contest, which was called at the end of the game by a score of 3 to 1, and the second contest, which was called at the end of the seventh inning, by 8 to 2. Poor fielding by Boston made the victories easier for the visitors, and they did not have to exert themselves greatly to win both. McGinnity went on the slab in the opener opposing Wilhelm, and the two twirlers had a warm battle. The first runs came in the fourth after McGann had flied to Tenney, in right. Mertes connected for a single and was advanced on Dahlen's out, tieier to Willis. He scored on Dunn's crack for one base. Dunn died trying to steal second. Boston tied the score in the same inning. With two out, Willis flied to Bresnahan and Tenney singled, but was forced by Abbaticchio, Gilbert to Dahlen. Cooley beat out a slow hit back of McGinnity, sending Tenney to third, and the latter crossed the plate on Moran's base hit. With one down in the eighth, Warner singled and moved to second on Wilhelm's error off McGinnity. Then Bresnahan pounded out a double, scoring Warner and McGinnity. Browne singled, but was forced by McGann, who was doubled at first. These tallies were sufficient to hold the lead to the end, as both pitchers steadied down and were invincible. It was almost a runaway in the second

BROOKLYN, 5; PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 2 d annual
There resulted
Philadelphia hits were bunched and the philadelphia hits scattered at Washington Park yesterday, and that was the main reason why Brooklyn won. Cronin pitched admirably He made a single in the third inning, Dillon made another and Lumbey swept the decks bare with a home run to extreme left. Brooklyn's two other runs had their inception in bases on balls. Dooin had chances to retire two men at the plate, but failed through poor handling of throws. Hanlon had Batch, a new man, on third base, but there was small opportunity to judge his work. Sheckard was chased to the clubhouse for jawing at the umpire. His successor, Dobbs, made the play of the day, a difficult catch of a high foul. The score:
